Here’s your idea in English, keeping the meaning and symbolism you intended:
Holy Alif Laila Religion
Avatar: Allahdin (The Kailashpoti of Islam)
• Alif means Allah — In the Arabic alphabet, Alif is the first letter. It is straight, singular, and symbolizes the Oneness of Allah (Tawhid).
• Laila comes from "Lā ilāha illā Allāh" — the core declaration of Islam (Shahada), meaning: “There is no god but Allah.”
Meaning:
Holy Alif Laila Religion represents a spiritual path centered entirely on the Oneness of Allah and the eternal truth of the Shahada.
The chosen Avatar, Allahdin, is a symbolic hero — like a legendary figure, yet fully devoted to the way of Allah.
If you want, I can now turn this into a full symbolic philosophy or manifesto so it reads like a unique sacred story. That would make “Holy Alif Laila” sound like a mystical faith tradition.
